

Nursery school admission tips and news for parents

Are you a parent of a child and you residing in Delhi or NCR region than we are providing you a information about and your precious child. The common question has bring on parents mind today is their children hasn't scored a nursery school admission seat in any of the respected schools delhi NCR? And now you are looking to hunt for admission in one of Delhi NCR Schools. But are you aware of the recent news by BSA, (basic Shiksha Adhikari? The BSA's recent advisory for Noida schools to ensure joining of only those students who live within 1 km radius from the school and it will become a serious cause of concern for parents. Below are the points you should know about Noida school admission:-

1. Noida schools only consider the students who residing in Noida.
2. Apply only students who residing within 1 km radius will get the admission in Noida schools.
3. Students who residing in Delhi or nearby location will not be considered for nursery admission anymore in Noida.
4. Students living near within 1 km radius of the school campus will be given more preference over other locations.

These will definitely affecting the parents who are looking for nursery school admission in Noida. This new rule will not be accepted by parents. In current year onwards, Delhi schools have revised the age criteria for nursery school admission child's, by reducing it to 3+ old with an upper age limit of 4 years old. Because of it many parents have started looking at admissions in NCR schools nowadays. Few parents also seek to send their children to some of the top world schools in Noida, especially those residing in Noida nearby areas because of the closeness to the schools in the NCR region. As a result, this may not be possible during this academic season.

The total number of actual seats available for nursery school admission is very small number. The Government new rule claims that 25% of the seats in every school should be reserved for the EWS (Economically Weaker Sections) weaker sections of the society. Additionally, every school has a percentage allocated for School Staff Quota (children of the school's staff) and Management Quota.

Sibling quota is also helpful for children's in school admission because most schools offer to the applicants if one or more of their siblings were study in the same school. Make sure you have to carry fee receipt of your sibling, to claim this point. Most of the schools have criteria for allocated for children of single parents. You will have to explain the same using any relevant legal documents while applying for admission. Children's who have disability or required special need than You have to submit an original certificate of disability from Government Hospitals to school for avail this opportunity.

Now about the document needed for school admission is:-

1. Birth Certificate from the municipal corporation
2. Residence Proof
3. Passport
4. AADHAR card